

In the third game which takes place 233 years after the awakening of the balance creatures the two regions of Lanal and Yaman are at war because Yaman is opposed to the technological and spiritual philosophy of Lanal. A young girl from Xilmar which has superior technology will try to help Lanal gain the upper hand in the war. As a secret agent she will infiltrate Yaman and use this technology to sabotage them while also trying to make the World Trees grow stronger and bear the fruit of eternal life to the planet.